

Social Service Organizations

Support for social service organizations that provide care and treatment services to people of all ages

Bartimaeus supports community social service organizations with managing children, adolescents, adults, and seniors who are experiencing behavioural, social, emotional, and/or psychiatric difficulties, and/or are developmentally challenged.

Community care

Support to private and public organizations, community outreach, and aftercare programs whose clients are experiencing severe difficulties and/or are developmentally challenged.

Programs

Support to private and public organizations within day, residential, and school programs whose clients are experiencing severe difficulties and/or are developmentally challenged or are young offenders.

Foster care

Support to Child Welfare and community agency foster parents experiencing difficulties with one or more of their foster children. This is a preventive service, aimed at averting re-placement of a child or adolescent, with benefits to the entire family.

The service allows parents to leave home for a few hours to attend events, such as school meetings, support groups, and recreational activities.

All service is provided on a fee-for-service basis.
